

1 it has indeed voted on that preliminarily, and the disposi-
2 tion is not to tamper with that at all, so what I am really
3 trying to focus on is the evidence you have if any, and I
4 don't think with all due respect, this statement or the 5 additional remarks you just made really do add any evidence

6 What evidence of political damage to the school
7 system do you have to point to, to show the governor can 8 treat the school system just as he does every other 9 department of State, that would result in political in-10 fluence? Do you have any evidence?

11 MR. RAVER: Mr. Sachs, the evidence<sup>is</sup>/of the 12 negative type. It is absolutely free of that because we 13 haven't had it. I don't think you will find this is 14 true in the other services in this State. They have been 15 cut. Let me give you one example. They are cutting 16 regularly in the area of higher education, and in, for 17 instance, per diem allowance for food at the colleges.
18 Now, I pose to you the question, who is better able to 19 determine how much they ought to spend for food, the Board 20 of Trustees of the colleges as now constituted or the 21 Budget Director? I say that the Board of Trustees of the
